THE LAND OF PROMISE

God promised the Israelites a special land He had designed just for them. It was called The Promised Land, a land flowing with milk and honey. God promised them He would deliver all of their enemies into their hands and give them victory and peace.

You and I have also been promised by God a Promised Land. The Israelites were given a physical land; we have been given a spiritual land. The Land of Promise for us is all the 1000's of promises in God's Word. As we apply and implement these promises in our everyday life, God will show up and bring Victory and Fulfillment to our lives. If we continue to walk on in faith, there is nothing that can stop us from enjoying all that God has for us. There is no need for any of us to remain frail, defeated Christians.

Promised Land living is a possession and enjoyment of our inheritance right now. Many of the Israelites failed to occupy the Land of Promise. They chose to complain and displayed a bad attitude. They did not experience the victorious life. It still happens today. So let us embrace God's Promises, let us embrace life with Gusto and Persistence. God told Joshua be strong and courageous. As we walk into an exciting land of Promise, it will take strength and courage in your inner man, in your heart. The Lord is well able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think.

Glory to God! What a way to live!! Let us have an attitude of expectancy – an attitude of nothing is impossible with God – an attitude of high energy and excitement – an attitude that says I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.

Promise land living is living every day in Victory, Power and Purpose. We have everything we need in Jesus to live in the land. Hey!! I'm heading for the Promised Land!

“WIND”

18 days 'till spring

When the month of March arrives, it is only natural to think of the wind we will experience during this month. And, it can get rather frustrating at times because of what the wind does. Blowing our hat off our head, maybe dust in our eye, or perhaps blowing limbs down off of the trees.

So, can anything good come out of the “wind”? Let's consider this:

- Harnessing the wind, will produce electricity
- Each year the wind exercises the trees. Too strong of a wind can produce damage to the trees.
- Depending on the amount of dirt in the air, it can help clean the air.

Does the bible have anything to say about the wind? If we go back to Genesis 8:1, we see that God used the wind to dry the land after the flood.

In Ezek. 37:9 the prophet was commanded to prophesy to the wind, and breath (another form of wind) came into the bones and produced life. This prophecy was fulfilled in our lifetime in 1948 when Israel became a nation!!

Probably the most familiar wind in the New Testament is in Acts 2:2... “And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.”

Next, is what I call a submissive wind. When Jesus and His disciples were on the Sea of Galilee, a storm came up. Jesus was asleep in the back part of the ship. They woke Him up. And in Mark 4:39 it says...

“And He arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.” So even an inanimate thing like the wind, had to obey. But why not? If we look at the creation in Genesis, He was present at the time of the creation.

But the greatest wind that we all can experience I believe is described in John 3:8, where Jesus describes what happens when a person is “born again.”... “The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and wither it goeth: so is everyone that is born of the Spirit.”

Last of all, consider this. Some may say there is no God because we can't see Him. But we can't see the wind either. BOTH ARE VERY REAL!!

Sincerely in Christ, Dean

HOME DEFENSE

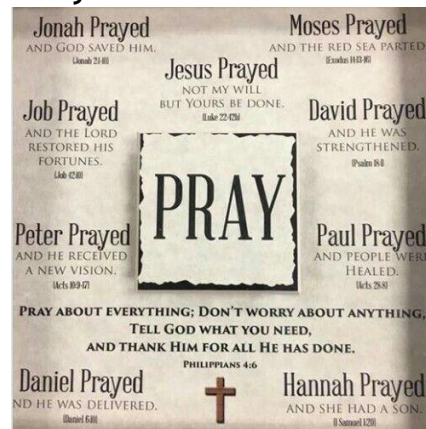

I was part of a group from our church that attended a daylong seminar on public safety. It was motivated by multiple attacks in public places which are so prevalent around the world today. We were inspired by heroes and encouraged by instructors. I intend to do a walk through our facility with regards to security, but in this segment let me say that our security should begin at our homes. I would like each of us to do something at our dwellings about fire safety, such as installing a smoke detector.

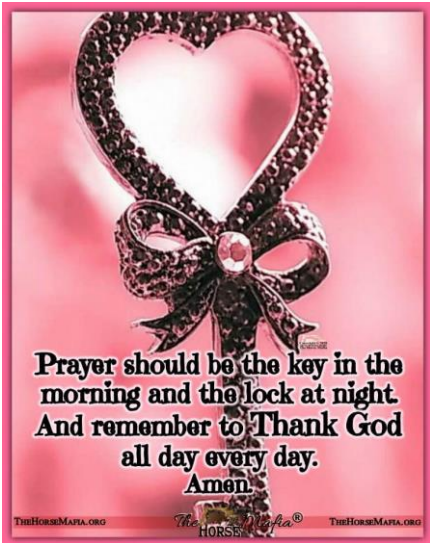

Then dust off the old fire escape plan; can each member of your family evacuate the house in a timely manner? If not, you may need to modify a window, door, or wall to help out with this. Where is the safest place in your place to weather a bad storm? Do you have any emergency supplies? Food? Lighting? Medical? How will you barricade yourselves against an intruder?

You should think of these things and have some ideas. Home defense is important as an escape plan, which gets your family safely out of and away from your property. Talk this over with your family; remember your pets, too.

Stay safe out there and God Bless!

INTERESTING TIDBITS

Jayne Beach

There was a farmer who grew excellent quality wheat and every season he won the award for the best grown in his county. One year a reporter from the local newspaper interviewed the farmer and learned that each Spring the man shared his seed with his neighbors so that they too could plant it in their fields...

"How can you afford to share your best wheat seed with your neighbors when they are entering their crops in the competition with yours?" the reporter asked....

"Why that's very simple," the farmer explained... "The wind picks up pollen from the developing wheat and carries it from field to field. If my neighbors grow inferior wheat, cross-pollination will steadily degrade the quality of all the wheat, including mine. If I am to grow good wheat, I must help my neighbors grow good wheat"...

The reporter realized how the farmer's explanation also applied to peoples' lives in the most fundamental way... Those who want to live meaningfully and well must help enrich the lives of others, for the value of a life is measured by the lives it touches. And those who choose to be happy must help others find happiness, for the welfare of each is bound up with the welfare of all...

Love is taught, always by precept, sometimes by example. Then hate, which no one meant to teach us, comes of itself. It is true that if we say I love you, it may be received with doubt, for there are times when it is hard to believe. Say I hate you, and the one spoken to believes it instantly, once and for all.

Say I love you a thousand times to that person afterward and mean it every time, and still it does not change the fact that once we said I hate you, and meant that too. It leaves a mark on that surface love had worn so smooth with its eternal caresses.

Maryland Chambers

It seems a farm boy accidentally overturned his wagon load of corn. The farmer who lived nearby heard the noise.

"Hey Willis!!" the farmer yelled. "Forget your troubles. Come in with us. Then I'll help you get the wagon up."

"That's mighty nice of you, " Willis answered, "but I don't think Pa would like me to."

"Aw, come on," the farmer insisted.

"Well okay," the boy finally agreed, and added, "But Pa won't like it."

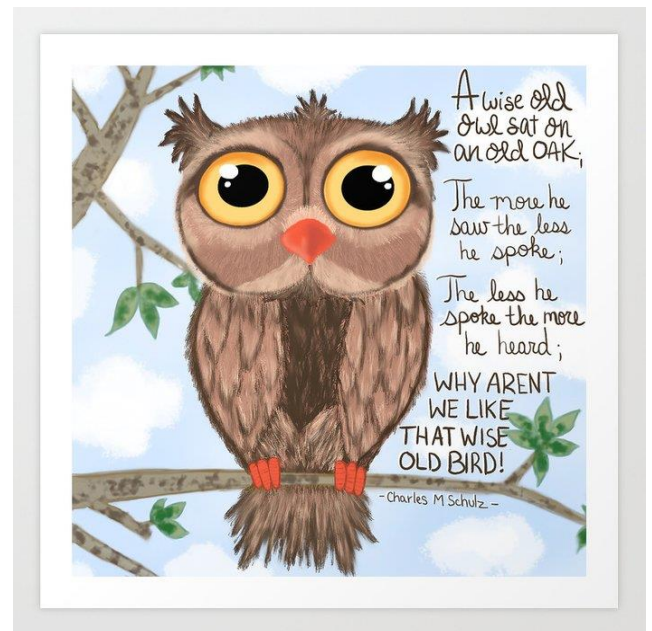

After a hearty dinner, Willis thanked his host. "I feel a lot better now, but I know Pa is going to be real upset."

"Don't be foolish !" the neighbor said with a smile. "By the way, where is he?"

"Under the wagon."

"Be still, and know that I am God. I know I sometimes do. The original Hebrew root of Be still doesn't mean "be quiet"; it means "let go." That's very different, don't you think? Let go and know that I am God! Let go of trying to control your spouse! Let go of your worry about your finances! Let go of your unforgiveness! Let go of your past! Let go of what you can't control—and rest in the knowledge that God is in control!" by Sheila Walsh shared anonymously

UNDERSTANDING YOUR FAITH

If you were to ask many Christians to define their faith you may hear a variety of answers. Some may define their faith as the church denomination they are affiliated with; are you living someone else's faith (tradition)? Some believe positive thinking is faith and some may say faith equals a person's personal belief. But the faith of God is rooted at the cross and Christ crucified, freeing all mankind being reconciled back to God and adopted into the family of God as sons and daughters.... now living as citizens of the kingdom of God. Some may feel there are things they need to do to increase their faith, pray more, fast more, read my bible more etc. All these practices will certainly contribute to a more focused faith; BUT IN WHAT AND IN WHO? If your faith is positioned in your strength and your understanding and not on God's faith it simply will not work. MARK 11:22. What do I mean on God's faith? Faith is not trying to get God to respond but is our response to what God has already done. Faith is the gateway into the spiritual realm of the kingdom of God. Faith brings kingdom presence to earth.

In SummaryFaith must be in the mouth PROV 18:21, must be in the word ISA 54:17,55:11, must be in the heart PROV 23:26, GAL 5:22, must be in the mind ROM 12:2, must be in the spirit John 6:63, 3:6.

MARK 11:23 Whosoever shall say (Speak PROV 18:21) unto this mountain (need) be thou removed (that's faith with expectation) and shall not doubt (it is written) in his heart (relationship within) but shall believe that those things which he saith PROV 18:21 shall come to pass, he shall have whatsoever he saith (spoken word ISA 55:11) Faith is operative only in truth and in spirit, aligned in the truth of God's word and manifested through the will and operation of the Holy Spirit; ensuring agreement with God's purpose for HIS KINGDOM

Faith is voice activated and is never dependent on how you feel or what you think but is what God's word says (Absolute Truth) PROV 18:21. My son attend to my words, incline thine ears unto my saying, let them not depart from thine eyes, keep them in the midst of thine heart for they are life unto those that find them and health to all their flesh. PROV 4:20-22.

Faith is found in the word and is what the word says. Faith is not knowing that God can BUT IS KNOWING THAT GOD WILL. I John 5:14-15. It should be a great comfort that God's plan does not rely on our greatness but rather ON HIS GREATNESS. No Goliath we face is mightier than the God we serve, we need only to lay down our lives in His service. MARK 8:35. God is not a man that he should lie, neither the son of man that he should repent, hath He said and shall He not do it or hath He spoken and shall He not make it good. NUM 23:19. FAITH IS TRUSTING GOD WITH YOUR LIFE. We keep saying the battle is the Lords. This is what the Lord says to you, "Do not be afraid or discouraged (anxiety, worry) because of this vast army (spiritual warfare). For the battle is not yours but Gods II CHRON 20:15. But then we pick it up again, and we should just WORSHIP! Remember you are God's possession and you are stewarding something (faith) He gave you to possess. Remember when its Gods possession than it's God's problem. II CHRON 20:12. God says if you will change your focus and look toward Him and who is within you. John 17:20-23. Greater is He that is within you than he that is in the world. I JOHN 4:4. Stop looking at how big the battle is but at how big your God is! We can trust God who has promised us that He will not test us more than we can bear. I CHRON 10:13. While I CHRON 1:18 tells us that God can keep us firm till the end.

- Pray. Pray that these men and women understand the value they still hold for this congregation. Pray that they understand how treasured their lives are in God's eyes. Pray that people will be moved to reach out to our homebound members in meaningful ways.

There is nothing impossible with God MATT 19:26. ANY AND ALL IMPOSSIBILITY IS WITH US, AS WE MEASURE GOD BY OUR LIMITATIONS OF HIM AND OUR UNBELIEF. When we are wondering where God is and why our prayers don't seem to be working and doubt sets in is called REACTIVE FAITH (what you feel, what you see, natural realm) and not PERSUADED FAITH (unseen, not necessarily felt BUT PROMISED) JAMES 1:7-9.

Food for thought..... An example of faith being applied would be being certain of what we do not see; "WORSHIP until the answer comes". Are you praying in hope or praying in faith? JER 29:11-13. Faith does not operate in the natural realm; spiritual realm always rules over natural realm. Faith is a confident assurance which is empowered from the spirit of God I John 5:14-15. Pray....I believe help mine unbelief. MARK 9:23. Faith is the substance of things hoped for the evidence of things not seen. HEB 11:1.

The Meaning of the

Snowflake

*Every new snowflake comes to the earth
as a picture of our Saviour's birth, because they are sent from up above
and remind us of God's care and love.*

*Each one is so intricate and small because Christ sees the details of us all,
and just as two are never the same
the Lord knows and calls us each by name.*

*Snowflakes gently cover the world in white and hide what's unlovely from our sight,
showing us how He covers our sin
and gives us His grace when we come to Him.*

*So may every snowflake bring Christ to mind and in every bit of white may you find a reason to celebrate anew
and a reminder of His love for you.*

Questions about the Early Kingdom

Saul Becomes Israel's First King

Story Overview:

Although God warned Israel of the many problems associated with having a king, the people still demanded one. They wanted to be like the nations. Though reluctant, a handsome young man named Saul was anointed as Israel's first King. The people quickly found out that having a king was not as good as they thought it would be.

Background Study:

Samuel had a busy schedule as a judge over Israel. He travelled a circuit year after year and also served in his own town of Ramah (1 Samuel 7:15-17). Now that he was older, it was time to share some of the heavy workload. Samuel appointed his sons, Joel and Abijah as judges.

Samuel, like Eli before him, failed to see the fault in his own sons. Some have speculated that Samuel, like Eli before him, spent so much time travelling and helping other people that he did not give enough attention to raising their own sons. This may be true or maybe Samuel's sons chose to be ungodly despite a good upbringing. In either case, the leaders of Israel were not happy to let these men lead the country (1 Samuel 8:5).

The people of Israel wanted a king so that they could be like the other nations around them. This upset Samuel. He knew that Israel was the nation of God. It did not need to try to be like the other nations.

The Lord told Samuel to do as the people asked, but first to tell them what it would be like to have a king. A king would take their sons and daughters for service to him; he would take the best of everything they owned (crops, cattle, and so on). They would eventually become slaves to the king.

Even though Israel had never had a king, the Lord knew all along that they would want one. He had even given them rules and qualifications for a king. (Deuteronomy 17:14-20)

Saul was completely unaware that he was to be the ruler of Israel. He spent his days watching his father's donkeys. One day,

As a christian,
you'll have good days
and bad days,
but you will never have
a day without God.
Praise God in good
and bad times.
Trust Him.

Fb/FaithPanda

when the donkeys wandered off, Saul went looking for them. Knowing that Samuel was a man of God, Saul and his companion went to ask him if he could use his divine gift to locate the donkeys.

When Samuel saw Saul the Lord revealed to Samuel that this was the new king. Samuel invited Saul to stay with him. Saul did not realize what lay ahead until Samuel anointed his head with oil. Pouring oil on the head was part of the ceremony of giving a position to anyone. Samuel told Saul that God had chosen him to be the leader of Israel. As Saul turned to leave, the Lord changed his heart (1 Samuel 10:9). He now had the ability to prophecy (10:10-13).

Samuel called a meeting of the people of Israel to reveal that Saul was God's choice. This was done by calling all of the tribes forward, one by one, and using the process of elimination until the tribe of Benjamin was chosen. From the tribe of Benjamin the clan of Matri was chosen. Finally, Kish's son, Saul was the choice. Although the choice was already made, this ceremony allowed the people to see clearly that the Lord made his choice. The method of selection is not clear. Perhaps it was done with lots.

What an emotional time for Saul! He had hidden himself behind some baggage. He was brought out and the people had their first look. He was a kingly man indeed, taller than anyone else in the crowd, and God had chosen him! Joyously the people shouted, "Long live the king!" But Saul was not to be an absolute ruler. There were regulations for the king as well as for the people (1 Samuel 10:25; Deuteronomy 17:14-20).

As the first king of Israel, Saul had nothing – no army, no palace, and no royal city. He was not eager to become king. After Samuel anointed him before the people, Saul went back to his home in Gibeah (1 Samuel 10:26). He continued to work on his father's land until he was needed to lead the people in battle.

YOU CAME TO THE RIGHT PLACE TODAY!

KNOW THAT YOU ARE ETERNALLY SECURED!

Do you want to know that you are saved?

The Holy Spirit will call you to repent, fast, and pray. .

Once you bend your knees before the Cross of Christ, you will receive the Power of the Cross to live an entirely new and Godly lifestyle. There are no human lives too difficult for the Power of God to change. Every change begins with Salvation, and that comes by coming to the Cross of Jesus and trusting in Him who died there to forgive you sins and save you. It comes by confessing, "Jesus, I believe in You and what You did on the Cross. Forgive me and take control of my life."

Let us go to the throne of grace and be persistent in our pursuit of revival. God has a storehouse full of blessings for His people. Aggressive, prevailing prayer will turn the tide. When you really believe that a risen Christ now lives within you, then you will confidently expect Christ to work through you. Genuine Christians demonstrate the reality of resurrection power through the quiet evidence of their lives: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

Do you want to know that you are saved?

We welcome you to reach out to us!
