Living Free from the Deadly Trap of Offense

LIFE MADE SIMPLE

Compared to 10 years ago, would you say that your life is more stressful? Or complicated? For many, life has ceased to be simple and enjoyable. It is easy to lose our sense of focus when our schedules are so full. May I suggest that in this day of rush, rush, rush – – we get back to focusing on LOVE.

Life is made simple and enjoyable when you love the Lord your God with ALL your heart, mind, soul and strength. Matthew 22:36-40 says our love is to be whole hearted and passionate. How are you doing with your Love for the Lord? It is impossible to love God with ALL of your heart, mind, soul and strength when you are focusing on 1000 other things. To get back to the basics, ask yourself this question daily -“Have I Loved well today?”

Love for God is measured one way in your love for others. 1John 4:20 says-- For anyone who does not love his brother whom he has seen, cannot love God, whom he has not seen. Love for your God and love for others are always linked together; Life becomes “simple” when you answer this Question: “Have I loved well today?”

The Bible says we are to love our neighbor as ourselves. Your neighbor can be the waitress who messes up your order or the man who cuts you off in traffic. Say, how stressful is life? To get it in balance, let us get back to simply loving. “How well have I LOVED today?”

NEWSLETTER BIBLICAL QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

With Pastor Walker

I encourage all of you to share your questions you might have and I will address each one, Pastor Glenn

1. How many years ago did God make man?

From the days of Adam and Eve to the present day, I believe is approximately 6000 years. We noticed by the genealogical records given in the Bible.

There are archaeologists and scientists that believe humans have been in existence for millions of years based on fossils and other data. The Bible does not address that viewpoint in particular. So from a biblical perspective, based on Genesis chapter 1, I believe God created man approximately 6000 years ago.

2. If someone says or does something you think is wrong according to God's word, is that judging them?

We need to be careful with this one because Jesus directly addresses this issue in Matthew 7:1 he says –“Judge not, so that you will not be judged.”

In verse 7:3 Jesus says why do you try to cast the speck out of your brothers eye but do not consider the log that is in your eye.

So here he is addressing a condemning spirit. It is easy to be condemning rather than loving. It is very important we conduct ourselves in a loving way and know all the facts.

3. If we believe in Jesus, will we enter eternity with God?

To enter into heaven one must be born again. That simply means we have repented of our sins and have trusted in Jesus as our personal savior.

1John 1:7 says “The blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanses us from all sin. Romans 10:9 – That if you shall confess with your mouth The Lord Jesus and shall believe in your heart that God has raised him from the dead you shall be saved.

So it is more than just believing intellectually. The Bible says the devil believes, in James 2:19 and he sure is not going into Heaven.

So we will enter eternity with God into His Haven if we are born again.

4. We are forgiven through the Blood of Jesus, when we go to the throne of God's judgment, will God remember our sins?

Psalm 103:12 says God has removed our transgressions from us as far as the east is from the west.

As Christians we will appear at the judgment seat of Christ and there are works are judged and we will be given rewards accordingly.

Our sins have already been judged at the cross where Jesus shed his blood. God will not remember our sins. He remembers they have been forgiven.

NOVEMBER 14, 2021

"VETERANS DAY"

World war I officially ended on June 28, 1919 with the signing of the treaty of Versailles. The actual fighting between the allies and Germany, however, had ended 7 months earlier with the armistice which went into effect on the 11th hour of the 11th day, of the 11th month in 1918.

Armistice Day, as November 11 became known, officially became a holiday in the U.S. In 1926, and a national holiday 12 years later. One June 1, 1954, the name was changed to Veterans Day to honor all U.S. Veterans.

In 1968, new legislation changed the national commemoration of Veterans Day to the 4th Monday in October. It soon became apparent, however, that November 11 was a date of historic significance to many Americans. Therefore, in 1978 congress returned to the observance to its traditional date.

TOMB OF THE UNKNOWN

Official, national ceremonies for veterans day center around the tomb of the unknown.

To honor these men, symbolic of all Americans who gave their lives in all wars, an army honor guard, the 3rd infantry (the old guard) keeps day and night vigil.

At 11:00 a.m. on November 11, a combined color guard representing all military services executes "present arms" at the tomb. The nation's tribute to its war dead is symbolized by the laying of a presidential wreath and the playing of "taps."

Instead of protesting the national anthem or the flag which our soldiers fought and died for, we need to show honor. And we need to thank the Lord for the freedoms we all enjoy.

Sincerely in Christ, Dean

Grace and Mercy

Scripture Reading – (Psalm 86:15)

But you, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness. Psalm 86:11-15

Thoughts:

What exactly is the difference between grace and mercy? And why does it even matter? Can't we just use them interchangeably? Nope. If we do, we miss out on some glorious truths. God's mercy and God's grace are not the same things, though the differences are subtle, and they are often mentioned together. In many ways they overlap; usually when God pours out his mercy, he pours out his grace as well. Let's dive into this a bit deeper. In other words, God's mercy is NOT giving sinners what they DO DESERVE. And God's grace is POSITIVELY GIVING sinners what they DO NOT DESERVE.

This is mercy: We have all sinned against a holy God. We deserve eternal wrath in hell. But in his mercy, God poured out on Jesus the wrath we deserved on the cross, so we could escape his wrath.

For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. (Romans 5:6) ...but God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us. (Romans 5:8)

For reasons known only to God, though we had spit in his face, broken his laws, rejected him and disobeyed him, he had compassion on us. God doesn't take any pleasure in punishing people, even those who reject him and hate him outright. So, in his mercy, he didn't give us what we deserved, eternal punishment, his infinite wrath. Instead, in his mercy, he poured his wrath out on his beloved Son. Jesus didn't have to die for us. He didn't have to pay for our sins. But our God is compassionate and merciful. So, he didn't give us what we deserved. He gave it to Jesus.

If this were all he had done, it would have been incredible. If God simply spared us from hell that would have been infinite mercy. Even if he did nothing else for us. Even if we were to die then

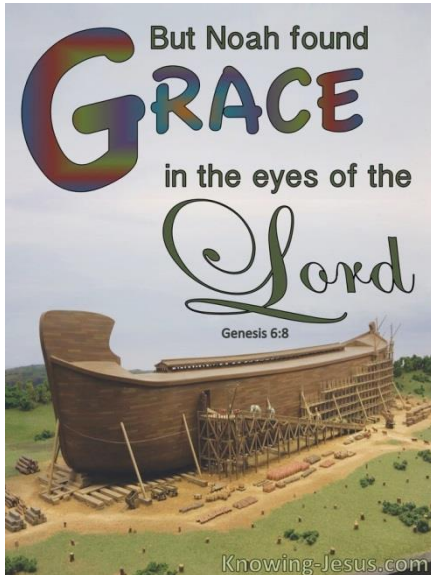

First Mentioned

Genesis 19:16

And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters; the LORD being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth, and set him without the city.

Genesis 6:8

cease to exist. Even if we were to never go to heaven or know him. It still would have been infinite mercy to us, to NOT give us what we DID DESERVE.

The difference between grace and mercy is that mercy is not getting what we deserve.

But not only is God infinitely merciful, he is infinitely gracious. In his grace he not only withheld his wrath, but he positively saved us: For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God... (Ephesians 2:8). The Greek for “grace”, “charis” means: kindness, favor, “a gift or blessing brought to man by Jesus Christ”, or “kindness which bestows upon one what he has not deserved” (Strong’s) See the difference? In his mercy God withholds WHAT WE DO DESERVE; in his grace God heaps upon us infinite blessings WE DO NOT DESERVE. In mercy he withholds what we DID MERIT – eternal wrath; and in grace pours out upon us what we COULD NEVER MERIT: Eternal life, infinite joy, being one with Christ, being made like Christ.

Grace is God’s free gift of his undeserved, unmerited favor.
Prayer:

Dearest heavenly Father, thank you for the Grace and Mercy you have bestowed upon us, even as we do not deserve it. Thank you for giving us your son to save us, that we can continue to walk in our unmerited grace and mercy. Help us to appreciate and accept what you have done for us. In Jesus’ name, Amen

Is often the path that is best.
So rest and relax and grow stronger,

THE TRAVELER'S SHOES

THE GREAT BEYOND : By 1981 I have completed two years of university, dropped out (economic hardship), gotten a union job (commercial baking operator), been laid off (indefinitely) and joined the military(for education benefits).

That March I fly from Pittsburgh to Fort Jackson, South Carolina, then to the Defense Language Institute, Monterey, California.

Springtime was the best time to endure basic military training and these low flights over our country give some interest and inspiration as well; they show me what I'm fighting for.

California at this time is sunny, kind, fresh produce and seafood, respect for life, a place that actually makes people who live there better. Forty weeks later I'm disappointed to learn my grades are not high enough to be retained in this specialty and I am transferred to intelligence school at Fort Huachua, Arizona.

Here I find the class is interesting, becoming engrossed in lectures and classified material. Eighteen weeks later I emerge, a fledging Intelligence Analyst. When, however it is time to receive orders for my new duty assignment, it appears that no one knows my destination. I am not listed on the units' general orders assignment sheet. "Hercula"? Special orders! See the Commandant!

Balaam and His Talking Donkey

In the story of Balaam, we find a man who professed obedience to the Lord, but grappled with a greedy heart.

Who Was Balaam in the Bible?

The Bible tells us that Balaam was the son of Beor (Numbers 22:5), living in Pethor near the Euphrates River. Balaam was highly regarded by the Moabites and Midianites as a soothsayer (Joshua 13:22) and prophet (Numbers 24:2-9) who could bless or curse with his words. His brother, Bela, was a king of Edom.

Although Balaam lived among idolaters, he professed great knowledge of God. So, when the Israelites encroached on the plains of Moab, the king of the Moabites, Balak, summoned Balaam. He feared the Israelites would attack, and he wanted Balaam to put a curse on them.

Balaam is known as a powerful diviner, so Balak asks him:

“A people has come out of Egypt; they cover the face of the land and have settled next to me. Now come and put a curse on these people, because they are too powerful for me. Perhaps then I will be able to defeat them and drive them out of the land. For I know that whoever you bless is blessed, and whoever you curse is cursed”(Numbers 22:5-6).

In Numbers 22:12-20 we read that God tells Balaam not to put a curse on the Israelites because they are blessed.

Because of this, Balaam tells Balak’s officials that the Lord will not allow him to go with them. So Balak sweetens the offer, tempting Balaam with, “Do not let anything keep you from coming to me, because I will reward you handsomely and do whatever you say. Come and put a curse on these people for me” (Numbers 22:16-17).

Then Balaam, in what I believe is the revealing moment, goes back to God. He sees Balaam’s heart. It’s possible that God knew Balaam wanted the prize money more than God.

But God allows him to go, giving Balaam a second chance, but warning him to “do only what I tell you” (Numbers 22:20).

Balaam rode his donkey along with the Moabites to go curse the Israelites. We don’t know why God was “angry when he went” (Number 20:22) but we can imagine God knows Balaam’s ways. To end Balaam’s willfulness, God sends an angel to block the path. But Balaam, intent on his assignment, doesn’t notice the angel. But the

It is not every day an animal begins to talk

God sees your heart, so heed his call AND seek Him.

This wayward bent of Balaam’s heart that continued in wickedness, is a telling tale of the inability to hide our hearts from God. Even in the Old and New Testament, we still see the true character of Balaam recalled:

Let’s look at what is declared in Deuteronomy, after God holds his blessing on the Israelites firm...despite the desires of Balak and Balaam.

Deuteronomy 23:3-5
2 Peter 2:15-1
Rev. 2:14

What we learn is to lean into Psalm 139’s self-examination. Be in the healthy habit of asking God to search our hearts, see if there are any offensive ways, and lead us in the way everlasting.

God is in charge.

Seek God's Word AND follow it. God is love. And that love is fierce, almighty, all-knowing, and all good. Where he calls you, he will guide.

More like the gentle donkey, and less like Balaam. When others tempt you to curse or harm others, even if great reward is offered, consider the reward you already have in Jesus. Run your thoughts through his teachings, and make your choices based on The Word that is trustworthy.

donkey does. Three times.

The first time, it causes the donkey to swerve away. And in an unsettling reveal of Balaam's true nature, Balaam beats the frightened donkey back onto the path. The second time, the angel stands in a narrow path with walls on both sides. Again...Balaam exacts his frustration by beating the poor donkey. Finally, on the third account, the angel stands where "there is no room to turn, either to the right or the left" (Numbers 20:26).

The donkey is so frightened, it lays down, with Balaam still riding him. And how does Balaam behave? You guessed it. He beats the terrified animal who is already as low as he can get.

At this point, Scripture tells us the Lord opened the donkey's mouth, and the donkey asks "What have I done to you to make you beat me these three times?" Outraged Balaam cries, "You have made a fool of me! If only I had a sword in my hand I would kill you right now" (Numbers 20:29).

It's a display of pride and wickedness that twists your stomach. The donkey reasons, asking Balaam "Am I not your own donkey, which you have always ridden, to this day? Have I been in the habit of doing this to you?"

Then God opens Balaam's eyes, and he sees the angel in the road, sword drawn. Only now does Balaam fall on his face in reverence.

The angel admonishes Balaam, asking why he beat his donkey heartlessly instead of realizing that his path was reckless. Now Balaam, a man who claims such devotion to God he can speak his very words, admits that he has sinned. He responds with "I did not realize you were standing in the road to oppose me. Now if you are displeased, I will go back" (Numbers 20:34).

Balaam does go back and stands by his conviction that he can only do what the Lord tells him to. And as it turns out in the ensuing chapters, the Lord will not allow Balaam to curse the Israelites.

In the eventual battle between Israel and the Midianites Balaam is killed while fighting on the side of Balak (Numbers 31:8).

A little boy opened the big family Bible. He was fascinated as he fingered through the old pages. Suddenly, something fell out of the Bible. He picked up the object and looked at it. What he saw was an old leaf that had been pressed in between the pages. 'Mama, look what I found,' the boy called out. 'What have you got there, dear?' With astonishment in the young boy's voice, he answered, 'I think it's Adam's underwear!'

KNOW THAT YOU ARE ETERNALLY SECURED!

Do you want to know that you are saved?

The Holy Spirit will call you to repent, fast, and pray. .

Once you bend your knees before the Cross of Christ, you will receive the Power of the Cross to live an entirely new and Godly lifestyle.

There are no human lives too difficult for the Power of God to change. Every change begins with Salvation, and that comes by coming to the Cross of Jesus and trusting in Him who died there to forgive you sins and save you. It comes by confessing, "Jesus, I believe in You and what You did on the Cross. Forgive me and take control of my life."

Let us go to the throne of grace and be persistent in our pursuit of revival. God has a storehouse full of blessings for His people. Aggressive, prevailing prayer will turn the tide. When you really believe that a risen Christ now lives within you, then you will confidently expect Christ to work through you. Genuine Christians demonstrate the reality of resurrection power through the quiet evidence of their lives: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

Do you want to know that you are saved?

We welcome you to reach out to us!

YOU CAME TO THE RIGHT PLACE TODAY!

Sincerely in Christ, Pastor Glenn
